Sultan Abdullah reminds Muslims to emulate the Prophet in daily life

KUALA LUMPUR: The Yang di-Pertuan Agong Al-Sultan Abdullah Ri'ayatuddin Al-Mustafa Billah Shah and the Raja Permaisuri Agong Tunku Hajah Azizah Aminah Maimunah Iskandariah conveyed well wishes to Muslims in conjunction with the Maulidur Rasul celebration in observance of the Prophet Muhammad's birthday.

Their Majesties expressed this through a post on the Istana Negara Instagram account.

"Rasulullah is the best leader of all times who should be emulated by every Muslim.

"Let us together emulate the attitude and sunnah of the Prophet in our daily lives.

"Let us also together increase our selawat (prayers of peace and blessings) upon our beloved Prophet Muhammad SAW. May we receive intercession from him at Mahsyar," it said.

The Sultan of Selangor Sultan

Sharafuddin Idris Shah wants the noble values and wisdom of Prophet Muhammad in uniting the people to be used as a model by politicians to stand behind the government in its efforts to battle Covid-19.

He said politicians should unite and strive to find the best solution to ensure the people continue to live in peace and harmony.

"The people are facing an economic crisis due to the Covid-19 outbreak, hence unity, stability and prosperity are very important to continue the development agenda, build strength and uphold the country's sovereignty," he said in a message in conjunction with the Maulidur Rasul celebration which was posted on the Facebook page of the Selangor Royal Office yesterday.

The Sultan said Muslims should continue to appreciate and live their daily life by the teachings of the Quran and the Sunnah that were left by the Prophet.

He also called on the people to appreciate and practise the teachings of Islam as taught by Prophet Muhammad.

"Prophet Muhammad, who was a noble and great human being, is a gift from Allah to mankind on this earth.

"He is a Caliph to all the people, one who taught the people about brotherhood, noble values and the meaning of real life," said Sultan Sharafuddin. — Bernama
