

Online app to help military veterans expand businesses

KUALA LUMPUR: The Veterans Affairs Department (JHEV) of the armed forces will introduce an online business platform to help armed forces veterans expand their businesses.

JHEV director-general Major General Datuk Dzulkarnain Ahmad said the mobile trading platform, called “JHEV Mall”, would help entrepreneurs among ATM veterans promote their products and services easily and effectively. “This application was created to encourage more military veterans to register with JHEV to further expand their businesses and it has several benefits.” He said the first phase of the introduction of the platform had attracted almost 200 participants, adding that an official launch of the application would be held later. Bernama
