

Sollehuddin Alyubi appointed PM Dept's senior deputy sec-gen

By Bernama - May 11, 2022 @ 5:01pm

Deputy secretary-general (finance and development) of the Prime Minister's Department, Datuk Sollehuddin Alyubi Zakaria, has been appointed the department's new senior deputy secretary-general, effective today. - Pic credit Facebook PMO.

PUTRAJAYA: Deputy secretary-general (finance and development) of the Prime Minister's Department, Datuk Sollehuddin Alyubi Zakaria, has been appointed the department's new senior deputy secretary-general, effective today.

Sollehuddin's appointment was announced by Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Mohd Zuki Ali in a statement today.

Zuki said the appointment of Sollehuddin, 49, was based on his qualifications and vast experience in various fields, including financial management and human resource development, also having served as the Government Chief Security Officer.

Sollehuddin has served in the civil service for 25 years, starting as an Administrative and Diplomatic Officer on Sept 15, 1997.

"I believe with Sollehuddin Alyubi's experience, knowledge and credibility, he can empower and strengthen JPM in providing the best service to all stakeholders," he said.

Sollehuddin holds a Bachelor's degree in Human Sciences (Hons) from the International Islamic University Malaysia and a Master's degree in Strategic and Defence Studies from Universiti Malaya. – Bernama