KUALA LUMPUR: Yang di-Pertuan Agong Al-Sultan Abdullah Ri'ayatuddin Al-Mustafa Billah Shah and Raja Permaisuri Agong Tunku Azizah Aminah Maimunah Iskandariah have conveyed their Warriors Day greetings to the Armed Forces and police.

In the official Istana Negara Facebook page today, their Majesties expressed their appreciation to the Armed Forces and police for protecting the sovereignty and security of the country.

"As the head of state and supreme commander of the Malaysian Armed Forces, His Majesty highly commends and expresses his appreciation for their services and sacrifices in maintaining the security of the country."

Their Majesties also expressed their gratitude to families of army personnel who were killed while on duty.

The king and queen prayed for their souls be blessed by Allah and be placed among the pious.

Their Majesties attended the Warriors Day celebration held at Dataran Pahlawan here today after a three-year hiatus.

In 2019, the celebration could not be held due to the haze which blanketed the country. It also could not be held in the last two years due to the Covid-19 pandemic.
