KUALA LUMPUR: Four agencies successfully achieved the platinum category in the Malaysian Government Performance Index (MyGPI) 2022 with a score of 90% and above, which is the highest rating category.

The agencies are the Works Ministry, Home Ministry, Local Government Development Ministry and Public Works Department.

The Malaysian Administrative Modernisation and Management Unit (Mampu), under the Prime Minister's Department, in a statement Sunday (May 28) said the 2022 MyGPI Rating Certificate has been presented to 26 ministries, five central agencies, and key departments as well as the Federal Territories Department (previously known as the Federal Territories Ministry).

"It is hoped that with this MyGPI programme, public sector agencies will be able to increase efforts to improve the delivery of public services that meet the expectations of stakeholders - the people, the business community and top management," read the statement.

Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Mohd Zuki Ali presented the 2022 MyGPI Rating Certificates in a ceremony held at Dewan Sri Baiduri, National Institute of Public Administration (Intan) in Bukit Kiara here Sunday.

MyGPI is a programme to evaluate the performance of public sector agencies that focuses on two dimensions, namely organisational management and digitisation of services through good governance towards public sector reform. - Bernama
