KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim congratulated students who obtained their Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia results today.

In his social media postings, he said he hoped that those who had obtained excellent results would be ready for the next stage of their lives.

"For those who didn't, this is not the end. Instead you should be determined to obtain success.

"I salute parents and educators who support the children of our nation."

Education director-general Datuk Pkharuddin Ghazali said 10,109 candidates obtained A+, A and A- in all subjects.--
