PUTRAJAYA: Health Minister Datuk Seri Dr Dzulkefly Ahmad, who officially begins his duties to lead the Health Ministry (MoH) once again, has expressed his determination to implement the digital health transformation agenda comprehensively.

He said the transformation efforts would be jointly guided by his deputy, Datuk Lukanisman Awang Sauni and the MoH team led by secretary-general Datuk Seri Dr Zaini Ujang.

"I am grateful to the Prime Minister and the Yang di-Pertuan Agong for allowing me to return to steer and guide the MoH.

"Insya-Allah, with this team, I will shoulder this heavy burden of responsibility," he told reporters after clocking in at the MoH lobby in a symbolic gesture to officially commence his duty at the ministry.

Dzulkefly, who arrived at the Ministry's headquarters at about 8.15am, was greeted by Lukanisman, Zaini and Health director-general Datuk Dr Muhammad Radzi Abu Hassan before attending a briefing session with the top management of MoH.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, in announcing the Cabinet lineup during a press conference yesterday (December 12), said Dzulkefly has been entrusted with helming the MoH as his experience is essential in strengthening the ministry.

Dzulkefly previously held the Health Minister portfolio from May 21, 2018 until February 24, 2020, and he replaces Dr Zaliha Mustafa, who has been redesignated as Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (Federal Territories). – Bernama
